Day to remember

In Hornsby

In Berowra

In Turramurra

RAIN did not stop thousands of locals from attending Anzac Day ceremonies across the upper North Shore on Monday morning. A crowd of more than 1000 converged at Hornsby RSL Memorial Hall at 9am.

At Berowra Park’s War Memorial, the day was marked at 7am with an intimate memorial service attended by many young families.

At Turramurra Memorial Park, veterans and young descendants of fallen soldiers stood in a sea of umbrellas to honour 133 local soldiers who served in World War I.

• Reports and pictures, Pages 4 -